TONIGHT: EMMA'S REVOLUTION

You heard them Sunday night at Ingathering, now come here more fabulous music! Activist Pat Humphries brings to us her powerful political songs, while her partner Sandy Opatow adds exquisite vocals, guitar playing, and song-writing. They have a gift for tackling issues and finding hope in the same place: community. What better place than SUUSI to appreciate it all?

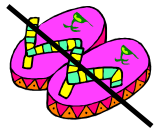

STAR CAR

We need volunteers to drive the Star Car on Saturday! Please sign up at the Info Office (Payne). If you need a RIDE, please let the Info Office know that, too.

WAIVERS AND NAMETAGS!

If you did not sign a waiver at Registration on Sunday, and did not get your nametag, come to Late Registration in Payne Suite 1B (see page 1 for hours).

HEALTH TIP: NO MORE FLIP-FLOPS!

Enjoy SUUSI all week with feet that feel good. Wear shoes that fit well with non-skid soles to help avoid falls and blisters. Leave those flip-flops under your bed – it's safer that way!

TWOB TIX AVAILABLE TODAY!

One of the highlights of the SUUSI week, TWOB (Teen Way Off Broadway) is a labor of love, a musical/theatrical production by about three dozen of our community's most talented teens. Truly a must-see, so be sure to join us! This year we'll be in the history Lyric Theatre in "downtown" Blacksburg. Don't worry, it's not far away – just past Gillie's restaurant on College Avenue. Due to theater capacity (about 400) we will offer two shows Friday night at 8:15 and 9:45. Be the first to pick up your (free) tickets at the Info Office starting today!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO KINSEY!

Congratulations to Kinsey Barrett, who is celebrating her 9th birthday today. Rock on, sister friend!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED – REALLY!

Do you have extra time? Are you willing to help your SUUSI community? Hooray! We need you! Please stop by the Info Office to see what you can do to assist.

SHOWCASE OF STARS

Come hear some of the best music SUUSI has to offer – in the afternoon! If Cabaret is just too late or you can't get enough music at night, join us for four fabulous afternoons of performance-in-the-round. Each day a different group of performers share their music, add harmonies, guitar licks, and humor. See your daily NUUS for a list of the stars! Bonus: it's FREE!

JOIN THE STAFF OR LEAD A WORKSHOP!

Come to Workshop # 229, "Getting on Staff, Leading Workshops" on Wednesday, 4:30 – 5:15 pm in NRE Lounge A-1.

SUUSI WEATHER: Tuesday

According to www.weather.com: Variable clouds with thunderstorms, especially in the afternoon. High 87F. Chance of rain 40%. (More of the same tomorrow. (Way to hang during the storm Sunday, by the way!))

SUUSI Joke-of-the-Day

Why did the golfer wear two pairs of pants?
In case he got a hole in one.

NATURE NUUS

510 – Stargazing will go Tuesday night or Wednesday night, depending on the latest forecast. We will post notices on the entrance doors of the dining hall no later than 5 pm to let everyone know it's the day. Even if Wednesday doesn't look perfect, we'll all go out to the park and see what we can see, and have a pleasant stroll. We'll be in a bus, so if it rains we'll just hop back in and come home. The time will be 8 pm at the Nature Tent.

514 – Dixie Caverns (Thursday) has lots of extra space. No Nature van for this trip, but a luxurious 50-passenger tour bus. Come by the Nature tent today or tomorrow and sign up the whole family. This is a walking cave, so the only equipment you'll need will be sensible shoes and a sweater or light jacket (54 degrees guaranteed!) Only $18 – what a deal!

720 – Kayak Roll Clinic has been re-scheduled from Monday morning to Wednesday morning at 8:15. Meet at the nature tent. We are considering adding a third instructor to this activity, so even if the trip was full when you tried to get in, come to the Nature tent Wednesday morning with your $30 (check or cash).

YOUR SUUSI ARTISANS: KNOW THEM, LOVE THEM!

We don't just want you to see our creations, we want you to know who we are! Check the NUUS each day for a little more about the people featured in this year's Artisan's Bazaar, then stop by for a visit (hours on page 1).

Wendy Laurel Buettner is a fiber and paper artist who relishes combining colors and textures. Her work reflects the joy and originality that she brings to all she does.

Bethany Cecere has been making lampworked glass beads for three years. To follow her love for glass, this spring she moved to the Seattle area and added borosilicate glass to her repertoire.

Donna Rogers creates fanciful, fun, hand-sewn accessories to wear. She also has watercolor greeting cards she made while her foot was in a cast this winter. (Such dedication!)

Mary Ann Somervill makes ornaments for the body and spirit using skills she learned in SUUSI workshops. She delights in seeing other wearing her creations. Stop to see her colorful display – directly across from the Bazaar entrance!

Carol Spiegel is from Madison, Wisconsin. She has rediscovered her love for nature and travel photography. Come see her note cards, framed prints, and checkbook covers.

Louisa Wimberger has her own handmade card business named "weehah!" in Charlottesville. She has loved cards from the womb, created cards for 8 years, and is now doing it for a living. Some designs are one-of-a-kind, some are ongoing, some are custom orders. Always handmade, often whimsical. www.weehah.com
