FROM THE BOARD

Curious About Next Year's SUUSI? Town Hall Meeting Today At 4:30 pm sharp!

The SUUSI community is invited to a very important Town Hall meeting today at 4:30 pm in Owens Ballroom. The date, location and theme of SUUSI 2008 will be announced, and members of the Board of Trustees, Core Staff and the SUUSI Director will be on hand to answer questions, share comments and listen to feedback.

The meeting will last half an hour; please be there promptly at 4:30 pm.

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

Happy Birthday to...

Hum along with me: Happy birthday to Robert Kenon, happy birthday ...

Minister of the Day: Rev. Meg Barnhouse

The minister of the day is on call for pastoral emergencies in the SUUSI Community. Stop by the SUUSI Info Office for assistance contacting the MOD (Minister of the Day) or the PY Info Desk after hours.

Theme Talk: Rev. Tom Rhodes Are our Principles and Purposes Good Enough?

The UUA Commission on Appraisal will be reviewing our much-loved Principles and Purposes over the next two years. Do they reflect who we are today? Do they help or hinder our growth as individuals and as a denomination? Should we reaffirm them or is it time for a change?

Rev. Tom Rhodes will share what he thinks about all of this and more - with all the agnostic evangelistic fervor he can muster!

Community Time Concert with Kym Tuvim

Kym Tuvim is a singer-songwriter from Seattle, with a huge voice and a penchant for telling stories with emotional truth. Her seasoned guitar work seamlessly blends genres with an intricate and deep groove, while her songwriting delivers lyrics that are truthful, smart and vulnerable. "Kym delivers her heart in every performance. When she sings, you can't help but be amazed at the rich depth of her tone and the truth of her lyrics." Kym will perform Tuesday at 5:15 pm in Owens Ballroom.

SUUSI Store Happenings

Don't miss the fabulous Bonnie Whitehurst from 1-2 pm and catch Relative Viewpoint the Next Generation from 4-5 pm.

These mini-concerts are a great way to get up close and personal with our wonderful SUUSI performers. The new Harry Potter book will be available at Midnight Friday. The SUUSI store will have both the book and the audio-book, and you can still reserve them at the Book Store. Don't miss out on the magic.

Evening Worship 8-8:45 pm in Owens

Edward Scott Michael: Put Your Whole Self In

Family Movie Lights Up the Sky

Join us for Wallace and Gromit: Case of the Were Rabbit. We'll get started at dusk (~9 pm) at the Slusher Tower, near the Youth Office entrance. Bring a lawn chair, blanket, or towel and enjoy the movie under the stars (or clouds). The rain date is Wednesday.

TWOB

The TWOB Teens are hard at work getting ready for the shows on Friday. We look forward to seeing you at The Lyric Theatre.

If anyone needs accessible seating of any sort, please leave a message for the TWOB director at the Info Office. And, remember to pick up your tickets (free, of course) while you are there. Today's hint:

*I've never seen a flying cow; I never hope to see one.
But I can tell you anyhow, I'd rather see than be one.*

Ministers Reception: 4:30-5:30 pm in Payne 3001

The ministers reception will be held today in the 3rd floor Payne crossover lounge. All ministers and their partners are welcome!

Magic in the Margins

The winner of our Scar Sentence Contest is Clare V. Donohue.

"So, what started out as a curse, a point of weakness and pain, finally proved to be an opening to the discovery of Harry's intuition, magical ancestry and his power - the lightning bolt scar!"

Clare, stop by the Info Office after noon tomorrow to pick up your chocolate frog!

An honorable mention goes to Chris Breivogel for:

"Harry was glad to hear that the last of the Death Eaters was run over by Voldemort's_car"

Songwriters

Join the SUUSI Co-write! Add a verse to a simple song and help perform it at Cabaret on Friday. See Arpie at the Info Office Noon-2 pm or 3-5 pm Tuesday through Friday for details.

Update on SUUSI Friend Ortrude White

Pat Harris reports that Ortrude White is at home and doing well after her stroke on Thursday. Her voice was temporarily affected but thanks to immediate care she has regained her voice. She appreciates calls but has asked people to please not send floral arrangements.

Meal cards: Lost & Found

If you're an adult and lose your meal card, stop by the Info Office for assistance. After hours stop by the PY Desk. Same goes, if you find a card.

If you're a youth (or their parent) who is missing a card, stop by the Youth Desk just in the side the door in Slusher. Look for signs at the desk. Stop by at any hour, the door can be opened with a badge -- although you might need a friend who hasn't lost theirs yet. Ditto if you find a lost card.

SUUSI SPACES

Artisans' Bazaar: 12-2 & 4-6 pm

A housewarming present, a little gift for your SUUSI friends, Holiday shopping in July. Visit the Artisans' Bazaar for these and other shopping solutions. Here are few of the talented people you'll find:

Susan Baylies (at snakeandsnake.com) designs tie-dyes and screen-prints her original designs on T-shirts. Her inspiration comes from goddesses, animal spirits, ancient earth religions and her feminist wit.

Ingrid Jackoway makes stained glass panels, sun-catchers, and lamps, many with nature themes. Ingrid can take special orders and mail them to you.

Karen Lauer comes from beautiful Northwest Florida - a great inspiration for her beaded jewelry. She has Murano glass chalice necklaces, carved ivory wearable bookmarks and sparkling spiral crystal bracelets.

Celeste Hall is from the UU Fellowship of Newark DE and will be selling hand-painted glassware. It's a hobby that she started when she made party favors for her parents' 50th wedding anniversary.

Dee Medley has been a crafter almost since she was born, except for a few years getting a Ph.D. and tenure. She makes jewelry, knits, and spins and paints yarn, and makes lampwork beads.

Cathy Murphy - beadification. A 1992 SUUSI beading class got me hooked. The colors and textures of the beads nourish my spirit, and hopefully that of the wearers.

Louisa Wimberger, owner/designer of weehah! cards, has been passionate about greeting cards for years, and launched www.weehah.com two years ago. She loves doing what she does!

Memorial Exhibition Open at Shultz

In the days and weeks following the April 16 tragedy at Virginia Tech, impromptu memorials sprung up on the drill field, and messages of love and support poured in from all over the world. Those have now been removed from the drill field, and gathered into a very powerful moving memorial display in Schultz. The artifacts are open to public viewing during daytime hours.
