Tickets for TWOB's 'Andy' Available Now

Be sure and get your tickets for tomorrow night's Teen Way Off Broadway performance of 'Andy', the story of a kid just trying to find his home. Two shows: 7 and 9 pm. Tickets are going fast! (And they're free, so what are you waiting for?) This show is a must-see! Accessible seating is available, but please let the Info Office know of any needs in advance.

Minister of the Day

A minister is available at SUUSI for your pastoral care needs such as grief, concern for loved ones at home, homesickness, or other personal crisis. You can reach the minister of the day by calling: (540) 230-0721. All requests will be treated with respect for your privacy and confidentiality.

Attention Dance-A-Holics!

Our dance venues have been kicking up a storm this week and as we enter into the few last days we want to make sure they stay hoppin'! Our fabulous DJs, who are working hard to spin for you (and please notice their way cool outfits!), will have song request sign-up sheets available for you if you have a song you'd like to hear. They will do their best to get your request played that night or the next. There are a few guest DJing positions still open. If you want to "spin a few," please contact Nightlife at 859-608-5393 or nightlife@suusi.org.

Men's Support/Enrichment Group

All men are invited to join a discussion about dating, relationships, and marriage this Thursday from 4:15 to 5:30 pm in the 1st floor lounge floor lounge of Norwood.

Theme Talk: Rev. Clare Petersberger

Out of the Stars We Have Come

Growing up in a Unitarian Universalist congregation in the 1960s, Clare says she doesn't remember lighting the chalice as part of weekly worship. But she does remember three worship experiences that kindled the flame of our liberal religious faith in her heart, leading her to pursue ministry. This morning, she'll share those experiences with us.

Showcase of Stars

Today in Powell 101 (2 - 4 pm), SOS will feature the gifts of Sarah Gonzalez, Emily Gonzalez, Ned Durrett, Joe Zimmerman, Jennifer Teeter, Griffeth Whitehurst and Brandon Morris. Drop-ins welcome!

Community Time: Tie-Dye!

Ever popular, bring your whites and leave with colors. Small fee for each item tie-dyed.

Evening Worship: Rev. Alison Miller

Lighting the Torch, Finding a Path

All are invited to our annual celebration of the milestones in our journeys of life and faith. We will welcome the newest lives in the SUUSI community by dedicating ourselves to and blessing our children. We will honor the memory and legacy of friends and loved ones who have passed away. And we will celebrate the transition of our teens as they bridge into the Young Adult community, bringing with them their experience, their wisdom, and their energy.

Concert Hour: School of Rock

The rowdy fans from SUUSI 2008 have demanded an encore! If you were at last year's School of Rock Concert, then you know what we mean. The Teen and YA participants of the School of Rock workshop (#234) will be on stage with booty-kicking favorites to get everyone banging their heads (in a good way!). Bring your friends, camera and earplugs and get there early 'cause last year it was standing room only!

Cabaret Thursday, Porterfield Theater, 9:30 pm

Features Gary Gonzalez and friends, Pauline Masterson, Joe Jencks and Pinky Bergman, Amy Carol Webb, Wendy Repass, Joe Zimmerman and Clare Zimmerman, Jennifer Teeter, Pete Leary.

Remember to sign up for your Jamboree slot at the Cabaret performer check-in table beginning after concert hour.

Ballroom Hour at Serendipity

Ballroom Hour is back at Serendipity, Thursday night from 9:00 to 10:00 pm. Come practice your foxtrot, waltz, rumba, cha cha, swing and salsa to contemporary music with ballroom tempos. We are located off the patio to the left and behind Muse Hall. See you on the dance floor.

Prom Gone Wrong! Tonight at CACHE and Serendipity

All the fun of a formal dance sprinkled with tasteful wardrobe malfunctions and bad, bloody 80's horror movies.

Late Night at Common Grounds

Come one and all at midnight to the Peery basement where fun, fellowship and music are always happening!

Artisans' Bazaar: 12-2 & 4-6 pm

The Artisans' Bazaar features many talented artists in our SUUSI community. Come and check out the local talent and pick up a few SUUSI mementos. A portion of the proceeds supports SUUSI. A little bit about a few of our artisans:

Anne Murray enjoys making books, exploring a variety of forms and the papers that decorate. She offers blank books, printed books, cards, and other small items that show off decorative papers.

Patricia Robin Woodruff tends to paint the invisible—thoughts, dreams, imagination and emotions. Her artwork includes fairies, mermaids, archetypes, deities and the joy of nature. See more at www.my-space.com/ArtistWoodruff.

Barbara Kemper (Artisans' Bazaar manager) has been an artist since first grade and designing and making silver and gold jewelry since 1971. Most of her time is dedicated to teaching school. SUUSI is her favorite place to be.

Needing an excuse to accompany his wife to a Campbell Folkschool weekend, David Groce took a stained glass class; he's been designing and producing ever since.

Two, Two, Two NUUS in One

Just like last year, we're combining the Friday and Departure NUUS. Look for special announcements about Saturday morning in tomorrow's NUUS. Because of the late notice, we've extended the deadline to 2:30 pm today. Send submissions to nuus@suusi.org or drop them off at the Info Office.

Shop 'Til You Drop—But Not on Saturday

Unlike past years, the SUUSI Bookstore WILL NOT be open on Saturday morning. That means that today and tomorrow are your LAST days to buy all those excellent books and fabulous music you've been eyeing all week. Also, because of deadlines for returning things to the SUUSI storage unit, we will have to begin packing up all those super logo items (t-shirts, caps, bags, ponchos, etc.), and fun items (colored hair spray, glow necklaces, stickers, tattoos, etc.) Friday morning. So make sure you get by the SUUSI Bookstore before it's too late!

We also have some fabulous Singings and Signings scheduled for you today. From 1:00 to 2:00 pm, one of SUUSI's long-time favorites, Greg Greenway, will be performing in the SUUSI Store. Then from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm, you can see more of last night's amazing Concert performer, Pat Wictor, as he and our own incomparable Joe Jencks, take turns performing individually and together. Don't miss this opportunity to get up close and personal with these talented performers!

Round Up for SUUSIships

Looking for an easy way to help others enjoy SUUSI? Whenever—and wherever—you make a purchase through the SUUSI Store, please consider "rounding up" to the nearest dollar amount, and we'll donate the change to SUUSIships. Plus, while supplies last, we'll give you a Kiss (of the Hershey's variety). Doesn't get much easier than that!

Worship Outside

Tomorrow's Earth Center Revival worship service will be held in front of Heth.

YAs To Be Wed

Denise Obenauer-Kohnke and Peter Kohnke are pleased to announce that at yesterday evening's YA worship service Julie Ryals and Craig Obenauer-Mothey officially became engaged to be married. Although the proposal was spontaneous, the engagement was not. The couple will soon be moving to Baltimore. A wedding has not yet been set.

Star Car Drivers Needed

One open slot Friday 9:30 pm - 11:00 pm. Several open short shifts on Saturday morning (breakfast and closing circle). Sign up in the Info Office.

Silent Auction Item

Come and bid on a one-of-a-kind mosaic created by Jiffy Shore in the Info Office (Floyd foyer). Proceeds go to the Kate Hoffman Legal Defense Fund.

Daily quiz: Many locals place the moonshine capital of the world in Franklin County, just two counties east of Radford. Why is this illicit and potent drink called "moonshine"? a) It's so strong it could take the shine off the moon; b) it was made by the light of the moon; c) to throw off revenuers who once thought it was a tincture for livestock suffering from Moon's Disease.

Answers to yesterday's quiz: False. Cripple Creek is a tiny town in Wythe County, about 45 miles southwest of Radford. Colorado is the only other state that boasts a Cripple Creek. The Band's "Up on Cripple Creek" is set in Lake Charles, La.
